

Leafy Streets

Tree Selection Guide

• 2025 •

TOWN OF VICTORIA PARK

Common name: Peppermint
Botanical name: Agonis flexuosa
Height: 8.2m
Width: 9.4m
Origin: WA
Fauna attracting: Yes

Graceful weeping tree with green foliage and fibrous bark. Small white flowers cluster along the branches between the leaves.

Common name: Smooth barked apple
Botanical name: Angophora costata
Height: 15.7m
Width: 9.5m
Origin: Australia
Fauna attracting: Yes

Smooth salmon-pink to pale grey bark, with clusters of white flowers during summer. New foliage growth is red, turning green with age.

Common name: Dwarf apple gum
Botanical name: Angophora hispida
Height: 6m
Width: 5m
Origin: Australia
Fauna attracting: Yes

Smooth salmon-pink to pale grey flaky bark, with clusters of white flowers during summer.

Common name: Yellow blood wood
Botanical name: Corymbia eximia 'nana'
Height: 8m
Width: 7m
Origin: Australia
Fauna attracting: Yes

Emerald green foliated tree with large clusters of creamy white flowers at the ends of the branches in spring. Bark is tessellated and tan to light brown in colour.

Common name: Spotted gum
Botanical name: Corymbia maculata
Height: 17.6m
Width: 9.7m
Origin: Australia
Fauna attracting: Yes

Tall slender tree with smooth cream mottled bark. Leaves are long and narrow in shape. White flowers bloom from winter to spring, attracting honey eating birds.

Common name: Powderbark Wandoo
Botanical name: Eucalyptus accedens
Height: 10m
Width: 6.1m
Origin: Local native
Fauna attracting: No

Tall tree with smooth white/cream coloured bark. Pink to white cream flowers from Dec-Apr.

Common name: Stringybark

Botanical name: Eucalyptus cinerea

Height: 9m

Width: 9m

Origin: Australia

Fauna attracting: Yes

Medium sized tree with blue/grey circular leaves. Cream flowers from Sept - Feb.

Common name: Silver Gum

Botanical name: Eucalyptus crenulata

Height: 9m

Width: 7m

Origin: Australia

Fauna attracting: Yes

Small to medium sized tree with blue/grey circular leaves. Clusters of cream flowers bloom from Sept to Feb.

Common name: Redheart

Botanical name: Eucalyptus decipiens

Height: 9m

Width: 4.5m

Origin: Local native

Fauna attracting: No

Medium size tree with rough, flaky or ribbon like bark. Cream/white flowers from Aug - Dec.

- Common name: Fuchsia Gum
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus forrestiana
- Height: 6m
- Width: 3.5m
- Origin: WA
- Fauna attracting: Yes

Small tree growing up to 6 m high with smooth bark. Yellow flowers bloom from Jan to Mar or Apr to Jun.

- Common name: Tuart
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus gomphocephala
- Height: 16.5m
- Width: 9.6m
- Origin: Local native
- Fauna attracting: Yes

Tall upright tree with rough grey-brown bark and glossy light green to green foliage. White flowers bloom from January to April.

- Common name: Jarrah
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus marginata
- Height: 11.8m
- Width: 8.9m
- Origin: Local native
- Fauna attracting: Yes

Rough brown linear bark with slender green leaves. Clusters of white, nectar-filled flowers during spring and summer attract bees and birds.

- Common name: Narrow leaved black peppermint
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus nicholii
- Height: 12m
- Width: 7.7m
- Origin: Australia
- Fauna attracting: Yes

Grey to grey-brown bark which sheds in short ribbons. Narrow lanceolate leaves are soft grey-green in colour.

- Common name: Red flowering iron bark
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus sideroxylon rosea
- Height: 10m
- Width: 7m
- Origin: Australia
- Fauna attracting: Yes

Very dark brown to black bark. The dramatic bark colour forms a great backdrop to the lanceolate grey-green foliage. Flowers are produced from winter to early spring, creamy to pink and red in colour.

- Common name: Pricklybark
- Botanical name: Eucalyptus tottiana
- Height: 6.7m
- Width: 6.8m
- Origin: Local native
- Fauna attracting: Yes

A beautifully shaped shade tree with fibrous rough bark. Clusters of white-cream flowers bloom from January to April.

Common name: Coral gum
Botanical name: Eucalyptus torquata
Height: 5m
Width: 5.4m
Origin: WA
Fauna attracting: Yes

A medium to small tree flowering between Aug-Dec with clusters of pink-red blooms. A species from the Eastern Goldfields is a hardy species for Perth.

Common name: Wandoo
Botanical name: Eucalyptus wandoo
Height: 6.7m
Width: 6.2m
Origin: WA
Fauna attracting: Yes

The trunk of the tree is usually straight with smooth bark. Clusters of flower buds bloom through the months of Dec-May.

Common name: Jacaranda
Botanical name: Jacaranda mimosifolia
Height: 9.8m
Width: 8.9m
Origin: Exotic
Fauna attracting: Yes

A deciduous tree with soft fine green foliage turning yellow before shedding. Large clusters of purple bell-shaped flowers form in summer before the leaves, flowers are followed by curved disk seed pods.

Common name: Broad leaved paperbark

Common name: Broad-leaved Paperbark

Botanical name: Melaleuca viridiflora

Height: 7m

Width: 4m

Origin: Australia

Fauna attracting: No

Papery layered bark, grey to cream in colour. Dark green leaves oval in shape. Flowers are bottlebrush like, red/ crimson in colour. Flowering Sept- March. Well suited to low lying areas inundated with seasonal water.

Common name: Chinese elm

Botanical name: Ulmus parvifolia

Height: 8m

Width: 7.7m

Origin: Exotic

Fauna attracting: No

Small dark green oval-shaped foliage with serrated edges. Deciduous, with mottled flaky bark varying in colour between brown, reddish brown, dark grey and cream.

For more information on the Town of Victoria Park's Leafy Streets program, visit:
vicpark.info/LeafyStreets

WE'RE OPEN
VIC PARK

